

The Elections.
HARTFORD, April 2.—Gen. English has been elected Governor; and Hubbard, Hotchkiss and Wm. P. Barum, (Democrats,) and Starkweather (Republican) Congressmen.
LATER.—All but eight towns give English 883 majority; the Senate has twelve Republicans and nine Democrats; the House has thirty Republican majority.
CINCINNATI, April 2.—The Democrats gain one councilman.
DAYTON, OHIO, April 2.—The Democrats gain two councilmen.

News Items.
MEMPHIS, April 2.—Confederate General Smith P. Bankhead was beaten to death, last night—it is supposed by policemen discharged at his instance.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Greeley is here, urging the release of Jefferson Davis.

The registration apathy of the whites continues more marked as the register approaches the heart of the city. In the third ward, yesterday, 270 blacks and 93 whites registered. The President transmitted no nominations yesterday.

Attorney-General Holt testifies that Booth's diary was spoiled before reaching him.

The Senate is more favorable to the confirmation of the Russian treaty. The pressure is very heavy.

The internal revenue receipts today amount to $1,500,000.

In the Senate, Senator Thomas, of Maryland, presented a letter—which was referred to the Judiciary Committee—asserting that he never saw the charges in the report of the Bank of Commerce. Reverdy Johnson defended Thomas in an eloquent speech, showing the prudence and honesty of the Treasury in 1861. After a short Executive session, adjourned.

The President sent in a large number of nominations to-day; but none of them of any importance.

The Supreme Court commences business in a case involving the right to tax land and products.

In answer to a direct question regarding the release of Mr. Davis, a member of the President's staff replied that it was considered a question for the courts.

The Mexican Legation has official news from San Luis Potosi to the 11th. Escobedo commanded the concentrated armies of the North, West and Centre. Frerino succeeded Escobedo as commander of the army of the North.

JUNCTION CITY, Kansas, April 2.—Gen. Hancock's Indian expedition, 1,500 strong, is at Salina. The weather in Utah and Colorado was intensely cold; during the march, the mercury was forty degrees below zero, and the snow very deep. A large number of horses and cattle were frozen. Gen. Auger and staff are snow-bound at Lone Star Station, on the Northern Pacific Railroad.

The capture of Fort Buford, at the mouth of the Yellow Stone River, Upper Missouri, is confirmed. Col. Rankin, wife and child, and the garrison, consisting of eighty, were massacred at its capture. The loss of the Indians was 300 killed, and 1,000 wounded.

It is believed that Chili is about abandoning an alliance, and is making terms with Spain for herself. Trouble between Chili and Peru will probably follow Chili's abandonment of the alliance.

A storm in a village of Bolivia destroyed twenty houses and 100 lives.

ASSOCIATED PRESS,
145 BROADWAY, N. Y., April 2.

To all Agents, and to the Press of the Country:

The arrangements have now been fully completed for the distribution throughout the United States of commercial news from all points of the world connected with New York, by the Associated Press of the city. The Western and Union Telegraph Company have entire charge of the machinery for distribution, and its agents will receive applications from all persons who may desire to obtain this news for business purposes. The sales for newspaper publication will continue, as heretofore, in charge of the Associated Press, but the new branch of the business now proposed will be under the direction of Gen. Marshall Lefferts, 145 Broadway, New York, who has been placed, by the Telegraph Company, at the head of the new bureau, and to whom all communications of importance should be addressed. Agents will be appointed for all the principal cities and towns of the Union as soon as practicable, and those wishing to subscribe can apply to the managers of the telegraph offices for information.

The commercial public will now be furnished with reliable intelligence, at very low prices, and with the absolute certainty of being protected alike against monopolies and speculators. The agents of the Associated Press at all points will do what they can to facilitate the work of distribution, both for the sake of public convenience and the interest of the principals.
